

I Can Do That!

The League of Women Voters of the Lower Cape Fear is sponsoring a women's history month Hot Topics meeting on Monday, March 26, in the St. Paul's Episcopal Church hall, 16 N. Sixteenth St., Wilmington, 11:00 -1:00. The program is entitled, I Can Do That: Women Seeking Public Office. There will be a panel discussion among four female elected officials, discussing their experiences participating in the political arena. Mayor pro-tem of Wilmington, Margaret Haynes, will chair the panel. Other participants are Mayor Brenda Bozeman, Leland, Jan Harris, City Council, Sunset Beach, and District Court 5 Judge, Sandra Ray. There will be an opportunity to ask the panel questions after the presentation.

Lunch, catered by Angie's Catering, will follow the discussion. The public is invited to join our celebration. To make a prepaid reservation or for more information, call Linda Kurta @ 910.622.2260. The cost is $15 per person, checks made out to LWVLCF, mail to LWVLCF, 1018 Sun Skipper Lane, Leland, NC, 28451.